GET THE RIGHT CARE AT THE RIGHT TIME

Where to go for medical care

When to call your Primary Care Physician (PCP)

If you need medical care but it's not an emergency, always call your PCP first for an appointment.

If you are not sure if your symptoms require emergency care, contact your PCP to help evaluate your symptoms and advise where you need to go.

If you receive care in an emergency room or at an urgent care center, be sure to notify your PCP of your visit. Keeping your PCP informed is the best way to ensure he or she stays on top of your medical history.

When to visit an urgent care center

Visit an urgent care center if you need to take care of a problem right away because you feel sick or uncomfortable and your PCP is not available.

Generally, urgent care centers offer walk-in service and are often open before and after regular business hours, including weekends. In most cases, no appointment is necessary.

BLUE KC 24-HOUR NURSE LINE:

Call 1-833-546-9354 toll free, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Registered nurses are standing by to help you.

IMPORTANT

If you have a life-threatening injury or illness, call 911.

When to use an emergency room

If you have a serious or life-threatening injury or illness, you should be taken directly to an emergency room, or call 911.

If you go to the emergency room for a problem that is not an emergency:

- It will cost you more than it would at your PCP office or urgent care center
- You may have to wait longer
- Your care will be from someone who doesn't know your medical history

Get to know your primary care physician

Your relationship with your primary care physician (PCP) is at the core of your health care. We believe in a patient-centered approach in which your PCP helps you coordinate your care and manage all your healthcare needs. Your PCP is your “go-to” person and is expected to:

- Work and communicate with specialists and hospitals
- Help you find the best specialist to diagnose or treat you
- Work with your specialist to monitor how you are doing

Getting to know a new doctor

If you have a new doctor, we encourage you to schedule your first visit as soon as possible. Your doctor is expecting your call and is eager to see you. The sooner you make your appointment, the sooner you can build a relationship with your doctor and start planning for your long-term health.

It's normal to feel a little anxious if you're seeing a doctor for the first time. You may be wondering if you'll like him or her and whether your doctor will spend enough time with you and understand your unique needs.

Good communication with your doctor can help reduce these concerns.

Tips to make the most of your doctor visit

Be prepared. Before your appointment, spend some time thinking about all the questions and concerns you want to talk about with your doctor. Write them down, prioritize them, and take the list with you to your appointment.

Come ready to listen, talk, and ask questions.

Don't be afraid to speak up. You are an important part of your healthcare team. Being part of a team requires trust and clear, open communication. It's very important to tell your doctor if you don't understand something.

- Be specific. Be as detailed as possible when describing any problems you may be having. For example, if you have headaches, tell the doctor how often you get them, if anything special seems to bring them on, and how long they last.
- Take notes or ask for a summary of the visit. It's difficult to remember everything your doctor says during an appointment, so write it down. Ask your doctor to repeat any instructions you don't understand or explain any terms you're not familiar with.
- Consider bringing a family member or trusted friend into the exam room. It can be hard to focus on complex information if you're not feeling well.

TO FIND A PROVIDER:

Go to medicarebluekc.com/find-a-doctor, and search for Providers by Name or Specialty.

Live healthier with routine preventive care

You have 100% coverage for many in-network routine preventive care services. Regular checkups and recommended screenings make it easier to spot problems early and when they're less costly to treat. Some, such as a flu shot, could help prevent illness in the first place.

The following preventive services are covered at no cost to you when performed by a participating provider in the Blue Medicare Advantage network:

- Annual wellness visits
- Abdominal aortic aneurysm screening
- Bone mass measurement once every two years, or more often if you meet certain medical conditions
- Breast cancer screening via a mammogram (one baseline screening between ages 35-39, then once every year for women 40 and older)
- Cardiovascular screening
- Certain immunizations, including the pneumonia vaccine and flu shot*
- Colorectal cancer screening
- Diabetes screening
- Glaucoma screening

This list is not all-inclusive and is subject to change. Please note if your physician orders additional services (for example, more extensive blood work) to follow up on findings from a preventive exam, you may owe a cost share of those services.

You will have no out-of-pocket costs if you get vaccinated at your primary care physician's office or at most Blue Medicare Advantage network pharmacies that administer the vaccine. You may have out-of-pocket costs if you receive your flu shot in a pharmacy clinic or other designated treatment area of a pharmacy. If you have questions about where to receive your flu shot, contact Blue Medicare Advantage Customer Service.*

How Part D prescription drug coverage works

1 You will pay your prescription drug copay until your total drug costs (paid by you and your plan) reach $4,130.

2 Once your drug costs reach this threshold, you enter the coverage gap, which means:

- In the Complete (HMO) and Essential (PPO) plans, members will pay 25% of the cost of their drugs.
- In the Plus (HMO), Access (PPO), and the Spira Care (HMO) plan, members will pay the Tier 1 and Tier 2 copays like they have been used to. Members will pay 25% of the drug costs for any Tier 3, 4, and 5 drugs.

3 Once the drug costs paid by you (or the manufacturer) reach $6,550, your plan will pay most of the costs of the drugs.

All amounts are for 2021 and subject to change each year. See your Evidence of Coverage (EOC) for details of your plan.
